Those present: Mary Jane Choi, George Kaissieh, Don Kavanaugh, Jack Lydon, Brenda McWaters, Leslie Smart, Angela Wiggins, Fr. Michael T. Wimsatt, Margaret Brosko, Albert Holmes, Paul Najjar, Deacon Chris McDonell

I. Opening Prayer

Council Chair Leslie Smart called the meeting to order, and Council Vice-Chair, Don Kavanaugh, led the group in the opening prayer.

II. Approval of Minutes

The minutes of the May 17, 2018 parish council meeting were approved as submitted.

III. Finance Committee

Patti Birk, Director of Finance, along with the new Chair of the Finance Committee, Jeff Boone, were present to answer any questions posed by the Council concerning the 2018-2019 budget. Afterwards the Council Chair called for a motion to approve the budget. Council Vice-Chair Don Kavanaugh made the motion which was then seconded by Jack Lydon and approved by the council at large.

IV. Pastor's Report

Fr. Michael began by telling the council that members Jack Lydon and John Smart had served out their terms of service and that their positions on the council would not be filled, thus taking the council down to twelve members. He thanked Jack and John, who was not present, for their unwavering service to the council and the parish at large.

Fr. Michael then gave a status report on the capital campaign and the committee charged with its implementation. Feasibility study was completed and presented to the campaign committee which gave the go ahead to carry out a capital campaign. The soft portion of the campaign, to be carried out before the August 18th announcement, hopefully will generate a sufficient amount of money to create a legacy fund for future needs. The campaign itself will raise monies to meet the immediate needs of the parish. Sharon Mattingly is reviewing the policies needed to ensure the monies are used in an appropriate manner.

Brad Harruffs presented a workshop on safety that can be used as a guidepost among the parishes of the Archdiocese.
